

taxing living expenses, we will make up to 50,000 yen of monthly income per 5-member household tax-free.

JAPAN COMMUNIST PARTY (JCP) 04:63

1. Basic Political Stance

1) We oppose the Ikeda Cabinet and the LDP, which aim for the forcible implementation of the new Security Treaty, and their reactionary and traitorous politics of reviving militarism and imperialism in subservience to the U.S., promoting nuclear armament, and destroying the livelihood of the people. We will oppose "Diet normalization" through tyranny of the majority and will strictly punish false certifications, bribery, and other unlawful election [practices] and will stamp out unfairness and corruption in the bureaucracy. 2) We will destroy the Security Treaty, withdraw U.S. military forces, remove bases, have Okinawa and the Ogasawaras returned, disband the Self-Defense Forces, and sweep away organs of repression, as well as control monopoly corporations and strive for rapid improvement in the people's livelihood through autonomous and peaceful development of the economy. Aiming for the independence of Japan, democracy, peace, and neutrality, we will establish a democratic front government that opposes the security treaty.

2. The Constitution

1) We oppose revision of the Constitution for the worse aimed at the revival of militarism, the reactionarization of politics, and conscription and overseas deployment of troops. We aim for full implementation of the pacifist and democratic articles of the present Constitution. 2) We oppose new violence laws and other reactionary legislation that trample the Constitution and will abolish the Anti-Subversive Activities Act, public securities regulations, and other repressive laws. We will guarantee freedom of speech and assembly, the right to demonstrate and form associations, freedom of expression, and the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively and will strive for the autonomous development of the democratic movement. We will protect powers of local self-government.

3. Foreign Policy and Defense

1) Opposition to foreign policy subordinated to the U.S. and realization of autonomous, peaceful and neutral foreign policy. Opposition to nuclear war and rejection of "port calls" by nuclear submarines and the introduction of nuclear weapons. Efforts to establish a nuclear non-proliferation zone in the Asia-Pacific area and realization of overall disarmament. 2) Opposition to Japan-South Korea talks, the "containment of China" and U.S. policies of aggression in Asia using Japan as a base. We will strive for exchanges of friendship, goodwill, economy and culture with the people of various countries.

4. Economy

1) We oppose the domination of U.S. monopoly capital in finance and trade as well as budgetary and economic policies subordinated to the U.S. in the name of the Ikeda Cabinet's "economic cooperation." 2) We oppose "trade and foreign exchange liberalization" which destroys Japanese industry and agriculture as well as monopoly capital-oriented "high economic growth policies," "fiscal investment and loan plans," and "regional development," and will aim for autonomous and peaceful development of the economy. We will expand trade with socialist countries and advance equal and reciprocal trade with various countries.

5. Industry

1) We will oppose the tyranny of U.S. and Japanese monopoly capital, will implement controls on monopoly capital, will engage in long-term low-interest financing and guaranteeing of supplies for farmers, fishermen, small and medium-sized enterprise owners, merchants, and handicraftsmen, and assist in democratic cooperativization. 2) We will oppose "basic laws" and "structural improvement operations" in agriculture, fisheries, and small and medium-sized businesses and for for farmers, fishermen, and small and medium-sized enterprise owners, will reduce taxes and assist and protect management and corporations. We will guarantee land, work, and wages sufficient to maintain a livelihood for farmers, fishermen, and farm and fishery workers.

6. Education

1) We oppose "people-building" that is a revival of militarism and state control of textbooks and will ban degeneracy and violence on television and in motion pictures and the advertisement of militarism. 2) We will guarantee the opportunity to receive an education to all minors and, with the costs of compulsory education born by the state, will grant [access to] healthy and democratic culture, physical training, and entertainment. We oppose job ratings and scholastic testing, will make educational commissions publicly elected bodies, and will conduct national and democratic education. We oppose the revision of the teacher training system for the worse and will protect the autonomy of universities and freedom of learning.

7. Public Safety and Labor

1) Opposition to the increase and strengthening of police power and spying on and repression of democratic groups. The sweeping away of repressive legislation, the establishment of workers' basic rights, and the disbandment of right wing gangs.

2) Opposition to "rationalization" firings, wage rate decreases, labor intensification, discrimination of between men and women, and the cutting off of unemployment relief. The shortening of work hours and large-scale wage hikes. The abolition of the system of employing outside workers and temporary workers, full compensation for work accidents and the full implementation of preventive measures, a minimum wage system, the establishment of a family allowances law, and the immediate and unconditional ratification of the ILO [treaty].

8. National Life

1) We oppose pillage by U.S. and Japanese monopoly capital and inflationary policies, the high cost of living, heavy taxes, and the traffic hell and will guarantee jobs, housing and a stable livelihood for employees.

2) Lowering of rail fares, bus fares, electricity fees, gas bills, water bills, other public utility charges, and monopoly prices. The protection of mothers, children, and the aged and the expansion and enrichment of social security. The construction of massive amounts of low-cost housing at the expense of the state and capitalists. The halting of tax-exemption measures for Japanese and U.S. monopoly capital and the abolition of taxes on the masses on the foundation of a highly graduated taxation system.
