

repeatedly with trade liberalization and technological innovation, we will revive the functions of the Central Labor Relations Board as a mediation organ. 3) Unemployment measures for the time being will be to expand employment of the unemployed in public works through an employment promotion public corporation. We will achieve full employment through national land development beginning with a transnational highway and the reduction of working hours.

8. Education: 1) The Basic Law for Education; 2) Service Ratings; 3) Moral Education

1) We oppose amendment of the Basic Law for Education for the worse. It is due to the present Basic Law that Japanese are being brought up who contribute to the peace of mankind and social progress and who are trusted by people of the various countries of the world. 2) The work of education, which influences and leads students through the freedom of the teacher's personality, cannot be measured by a mechanical standard. Malicious bullying of the Japan Teacher's Union will simply lead to disorder in education. 3) To love one's country and relatives is a natural emotion of mankind. It is the elimination of corruption, violence, poverty, and other social evils and a healthy home environment that is the real precondition for true moral education.

Democratic Socialist Party (DSP)

53.60

1. The Reconstruction of Democratic Politics: 1) Political Stance; 2) Measures to Prevent Violence; 3) Constitutional Revision, Etc.

1) We will hold fast to parliamentary democracy. We oppose the Diet activities of the LDP and JSP that deny parliamentary politics. For the sake of normalizing the Diet, we advocate the two principles of not conducting passages of bills through single party voting and denial of violence inside the Diet chambers.

2) We will remove violence absolutely and will thoroughly prosecute behind-the-scenes ties irrespective of right-left affiliation, the person, or association. 3) The present peace, democracy, and human respect Constitution should not be revised. As for elections, we will strengthen public-management and penalties and will reform money power elections into policy oriented ones.

2. The Security Treaty System: 1) Handling of the New Security Treaty; 2) Neutralism; 3) Defense Capacity

1) We will abrogate the new Security Treaty step by step through repeated negotiations with the U.S. Unilateral abrogation as proposed by the JSP is impossible and would, on the contrary, endanger peace. 2) As the point of contact in the U.S.-Soviet conflict, our country's advocating an idealistic neutralism would lead to the result of benefitting China and the Soviet Union. Our country's security depends on a security system centered around the United Nations. 3) Until an international disarmament treaty is realized, we will take minimum self-defense measures within the framework of the Constitution and the people's livelihood. We oppose nuclear armament.

3. Foreign Policy: 1) Basic Line; 2) The Japan-China Issue;

3) The Territorial Issue

1) Without bringing U.S.-Soviet conflict into the country, we will confront the LDP's subservience to the U.S. and the JSP's ingratiating of itself with the Soviet Union and promote autonomous and independent diplomacy while maintaining and developing cooperative relations with the countries of the free world. 2) For the sake of realizing world peace, we will devote all efforts to reestablishing relations with China and promoting Japan-China trade. On the Taiwan issue, we will strive for peaceful resolution through international cooperation and recognize the right of the Peking government to send representatives to the U.N. 3) On the territorial return issue, we will strongly demand quick resolution from both the U.S. and Soviet Union.

4. Long-Term Economic Plan: 1) Economic Growth Rate; 2) Priority in the Plan; 3) Means of Achievement

1) We will establish an 8-year plan extending to 1968 when total population will exceed 100 million and set the economic growth rate to an annual average of 8.8 percent. 2) We will realize the doubling of National Income eight years hence, the expansion of trade to 990 million dollars, an increase of employment by 10 million, and a prosperous living of 50,000 yen per month per household--in other words, the middle class-ization of the entire citizenry. 3) We shall control competition among large corporations over the expansion of facilities, distribute modernization promotion funds to farmers and fishermen, and raise productivity in accordance with technological innovation.

5. Industry: 1) Trade Liberalization; 2) Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, 3) Small and Medium-sized Enterprises

1) From the vantage point of the peaceful expansion of the world economy, we will promote the parallel expansion of East and West trade and switch from the self interest-oriented promotion of liberalization of the advanced countries of Europe and North America to a U.N.-centered one. 2) Through the creation of 1.5 million chō of new cultivated land, the expansion of the agricultural goods processing industry, and production increases and the price maintenance of commercial produce, we will raise the standard of living of ultra-small farmers and establish farm household operations that can turn in a profit. 3) We will secure 40 percent of bank loans and 30 percent of commodities orders by government agencies for small and medium-sized businesses.

6. National Life: 1) Price Policies; 2) Tax Reduction; 3) Housing and Land

1) We will strive for the cancellation public utility rate increases, the strengthening of the national regulation of the monopoly industry managements, the planification of the production and marketing of perishable foods, and the expansion and improvement of storage facilities. 2) Exempt wage-earners with monthly incomes of less than 50,000 yen from taxation and reduce corporate and business taxes for small and medium-sized corporations. We will abolish commodity taxes and newly establish deductions for white color employee families. We will increase taxes on excess profits by raising property taxes and newly establishing a tax on land price increases. 3) We will construct 750,000 units of low rent public housing annually and realize in five years a housing distribution of one unit per household.

7. Social Security and Labor: 1) National Pensions; 2) Labor Measures; 3) The Employment Problem

1) We will postpone the contributory national pension for five years. Non-contributory pensions will be raised to 3,000 yen monthly for old age, 3,500 yen monthly for women and children (including separation), and for the physically disabled, 3,000 yen. 2) We will establish a company by company and industry by industry prior joint consultation system and a system for worker participation in management and will realize the improvement of working conditions through discussion and an industry by industry minimum wage system. 3) Through the expansion of industry as a whole and of public works projects and through the reduction of work hours and so on, we will increase employment by a net of 10 million. The state will be responsible for job training for the unemployed and the assurance of a livelihood.

8. Education: 1) The Basic Law for Education; 2) Service Ratings; 3) Moral Education

1) The present Basic Law for Education conforms to the spirit of the Constitution and there is no need for amendment. 2) As for service ratings, we will establish a service ratings commission and will resolve the issue through thorough investigation and deliberation among the three parties of teachers, board of education members, and experienced and knowledgeable persons. We oppose the LDP, which is ignoring the nonpartisan character of education to repress the Japan Teachers'

Union, and the JSP, which is using education as a tool for class struggle. 3) We will oppose moral education that compels reactionary thought and will strive to establish wholesome social discipline through the thorough implementation of democratic education and the improvement of the living environment.

J4:60

Japan Communist Party (JCP)

1. The Reconstruction of Democratic Politics: 1) Political Stance; 2) Measures to Prevent Violence; 3) Constitutional Revision, Etc.

1) Aiming for peace, independence, neutrality, and democracy, we will realize politics in which the people are the main actor. Major national issues will always be placed before a general election. We shall guarantee the right to petition totally and have people's representatives participate in various administrative commissions. 2) We will dissolve right wing terrorist gangs, abolish the national police that tacitly permits and assists their terrorism and will aim for their consolidation into democratic self-government police. 3) We will protect the Constitution and will abolish unconstitutional laws and regulations. The reapportionment of Diet seats in accordance with population ratios.

2. The Security Treaty System: 1) Handling of the New Security Treaty; 2) Neutralism; 3) Defense Capacity

1) The Ikeda Cabinet is on the verge of implementing an invalid security treaty. The people oppose this and are, in a sense, at the stage of struggle. By winning in the general