

1960 GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN PLEDGES

Liberal Democratic Party

J1:60

1. The Reconstruction of Democratic Politics: 1) Political Stance; 2) Measures to Prevent Violence; 3) Constitutional Revision, Etc.

1) With forbearance and patience, we will strive to secure parliamentary politics and heighten the nation's confidence in politics. 2) While we are determined to eliminate violence in all forms on the basis of the good sense of the people, we shall thoroughly strengthen enforcement and strive for complete extermination of ultra-left and ultra-right terrorism in particular. 3) With regard to the Constitution, we shall wait for the results of the Constitutional Study Committee before deciding the party's stance. As for the Election Law, we will continue to conduct full investigation and strive to assure fair and open voting institutions that respect public opinion.

2. The Security Treaty System: 1) Handling of the New Security Treaty; 2) Neutralism; 3) Defense Capacity

1) We will aim for the appropriate operation of the new Security Treaty and will secure our country's security and prosperity while contributing to world peace. 2) We will eliminate neutralism and, as a member of the Free World, will do our utmost to strengthen ties and cooperation with the United States and the various free world countries. 3) In order to assure our country's safety, we will hold fast to the Japan-U.S. Security Treaty system and establish the minimum necessary self-defense capacity until the functions of the United Nations have been perfected.

3. Foreign Policy: 1) Basic Line; 2) The Japan-China Issue;
3) The Territorial Issue

1) As for foreign policy, in accordance with the spirit of the U.N. Charter, we will secure the peace and prosperity of our country, hold contribution to the peace of the world and the welfare of mankind as the base, and will autonomously and actively promote peace diplomacy under a unified domestic and foreign policy. 2) With regard to Japan-China relations, under the basic principles of non-intervention in domestic affairs and mutual respect for each other's political and social systems, we will strive for economic, cultural and other exchanges. 3) We will endeavor all the more for return of sovereignty over the Northern Territories and Okinawa-Ogasawara.

4. Long-Term Economic Plan: 1) Economic Growth Rate; 2)
Priority in the Plan; 3) Means of Achievement

1) With a target of at least doubling Gross National Product and National Income within ten years, we shall secure for the three year period following the next fiscal year an annual rate of growth of 9 percent. 2) In ten years, we will attain a standard of living comparable to that of the various Western European countries, realize full employment, and correct the imbalance in income between various social strata. 3) As for the means of achieving the plan, on the base of freely giving full play to the abilities of the nation and the development of the economy, we will comprehensively realize public works projects, the training of people and the promotion of scientific technology, tax reductions, social security, etc.

5. Industry: 1) Trade Liberalization; 2) Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, 3) Small and Medium-sized Businesses

1) The liberalization of trade is something which smoothes the exchange of goods between countries and brings about the development of our country's trade. We will advance it in a planned manner after making full preparations. 2) Centering around land improvement and other forms of strengthening the production base and upon the nurturing of self-supporting farm households, we will strive to raise agricultural productivity and income. We will strengthen measures to promote coastal fisheries all the more and will promote the location of manufacturing industry in farming and fishing villages. 3) Toward small and medium-sized businesses, we will strive for large-scale increases in the Fiscal Loan and Investment Program and the lowering of interest rates, tax reductions, the strengthening of modernization assistance loans, etc.

6. National Life: 1) Price Policies; 2) Tax Reduction; 3) Housing and Land

1) We will hold down consumer price rises by discouraging pricing agreements among operators, increasing the production and import of items in short supply, holding down public utility rate increases as much as possible, strengthening administrative guidance, and so on. 2) We will in the next fiscal year reduce national taxes by approximately 100 billion yen and local taxes by approximately 20 billion yen for a total tax reduction of 120 billion yen and strive to greatly reduce the tax burden on the low and medium income strata while improving the constitution of corporations. Hereafter, we will implement large-scale tax reductions annually. 3) We will expand further the supply of land for housing and housing construction through public enterprises.

7. Social Security and Labor: 1) National Pensions; 2) Labor Measures; 3) The Employment Problem

1) As for contributory national pension, we will implement this beginning next fiscal year after adding reforms such as amendment so that those who pass away do not lose their contributions and other reforms. 2) On the basis of mutual understanding by both labor and management, we will strive for the establishment of normalized labor-management practices and the peaceful resolution of labor-management disputes. We will seriously study reform of labor-related legislation. 3) We will improve and expand employment year by year through high growth of the economy and in ten years realize full employment. We will further strengthen existing measures for the unemployed.

8. Education: 1) The Basic Law for Education; 2) Service Ratings; 3) Moral Education

1) Because the Basic Law for Education is a most important law, we will fully and carefully study it. 2) Because service ratings are needed for fair personnel management and for raising the effectiveness of education, we promote them fairly and in accordance with the law. We will strongly demand that the Japan Teacher's Union reconsider its attitude of opposing them for political purposes. 3) In order to bring up a nation that loves its country and has high moral character and good sense, as well as to prevent the delinquency of youth, we will stress moral education all the more.

1. The Reconstruction of Democratic Politics: 1) Political Stance; 2) Measures to Prevent Violence; 3) Constitutional Revision, Etc.

1) We will protect the pacifism and democracy in the Constitution and strive for their complete implementation. Respecting discussion in the Diet and, in addition, the intentions of the people, on issues where public opinion is greatly divided we will through dissolution appeal to the confidence of the nation. 2) We will heighten public opinion denouncing terrorism and will address the connections of the right wing to the conservative party and the business community, and sever its source of funding. 3) We oppose Constitutional revision. With regard to the Election Law, along with strengthening the joint responsibility system [regulations holding a candidate also responsible for election law violations committed by his or her campaign officers], we will implement completely public management of elections and reapportion Diet seats in proportion to the number of voters.

2. The Security Treaty System: 1) Handling of the New Security
