

1963 GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN PLEDGES

LIBERAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY (LDP)

01:63

1. Basic Political Stance

1) With respecting of freedom and human rights as the foundation and constantly seeking progress within order and tradition, the Liberal Democratic Party has as its mission the establishment of parliamentary politics that serves the people as a whole. Thus, we will eliminate class dictatorshipism, which suppresses freedom and human rights and destroys order and tradition. 2) In operating the Diet, we will stress patience and forbearance and strive for normal operations through discussion. However, in order to secure the authority of the Diet and establish parliamentary politics which fully reflects the will of the majority of the nation, we will strive to eliminate all violence from the Diet as well as for modernization and increased efficiency.

2. Constitution

1) While it is natural to reexamine the Constitution under the Occupation through the free will of the nation, because revising the Constitution is the biggest political issue, our party will reach its conclusion after careful examination of such things as the report of the Cabinet Constitutional Commission and the trends in national opinion. 2) We will hold fast to the three principles of pacifism, democracy, and basic human rights and will not consider Imperial rule or a conscription system. We denounce the Socialist Party's deceitful protection of the Constitution that labels the present Constitution a bourgeois constitution and has as its true goal the establishment of a socialist constitution.

3. Foreign Policy and Defense

1) Holding contribution to world peace while assuring our country's safety and prosperity as the basis of foreign policy, we will make ties with friendly countries even closer and, in particular, will strengthen cooperation and ties with Asian countries. 2) We will strive to quickly normalize Japan-South Korean relations. It is a matter of course for our country, which defends itself through the Japan-U.S. Security Treaty, to allow nuclear submarines not armed with nuclear weapons to call at our ports. We will strive to fortify self-defense capacity in accordance with national strength, strengthen the Japan-U.S. security system and the assure the security of the nation.

4. Economy

1) In order to steadily continue from hereon to achieve income doubling and full employment on top of the fruits of economic high growth, we will strive for wholesomeness in the economy, emphasizing in particular the stabilization of the cost of living and balance in the international balance of payments. For this purpose we will set approximately 6-7 percent annually as the target for real economic growth and will do our fullest to balance the budget, reform the constitution of industry through sound finance, stabilize the cost of living, increase exports, etc. 2) We will positively advance overseas economic and technical assistance all the more and contribute to the development and prosperity of the various developing countries.

5. Industry

In order to bring about the modernization and the stabilization of the management of small and medium-sized businesses, we will faithfully implement the measures of the Basic Law for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises. For this purpose, we will strive for the large-scale injection of budgetary funds and a lightening of taxes. 2) In order to strive for the raising of productivity and an increase in the income of agriculture, forestry, and fisheries, we will faithfully implement the measures of the Basic Law for Agriculture and the Coastal Fisheries Promotion Law. In particular, we will greatly increase the scale of such structural improvement projects as the strengthening of the production base, the modernization of management, and the placement of appropriate industries in appropriate locations and will expand national assistance and long-term, low-interest financing.

6. Education

1) With the target of fostering people who are good Japanese citizens while at the same time good citizens of the world, we will strive to secure the cultivation of public spiritedness and the perfection of moral education, as well as promote scientific and technical education and balance in opportunities for education, etc. 2) The assistance and encouragement of healthy youth group activities and the strengthening of measures to prevent delinquency. The expansion and improvement of colleges in conjunction with the rapid increase in high school students, improvement in the salaries and benefits of college presidents, the autonomous rationalization of college management, etc. Research on a college entrance examination system that respects day-to-day achievement.

7. Public Safety and Labor

1) In order to contribute as much as possible to the prevention of crime and the maintenance of public peace, we will strengthen police power and fortify personnel. We will strengthen the system for preventing violence and will strengthen penalties for political violence in order to bring about the uprooting of such activity. We will strengthen the policing system for preventing vicious crimes and, in addition, will strive for the correction of the social environment that is its hotbed. 2) In order to encourage the reemployment of middle-aged and elderly retirees, we will strive for the strengthening of job training and employment referrals, and the appropriate implementation of the revised Unemployment Law.

B. National Life

1) The securing of balanced and healthy economic growth in order to appropriately stabilize price levels. For the time being, direction of all effort to the stabilization of consumer prices and, in particular, to increasing the supply of food items and the improvement of distribution. The strong promotion of the construction of houses and land for housing in massive quantities. 2) The resolute execution of a 200 billion yen tax cut. We will implement a lightening of the burden of income taxes, resident taxes and other mass taxes imposed on the small and middle income strata as well as implement the lightening and rationalization of corporate taxes, which will contribute to the expansion of exports, the modernization of small and medium-sized businesses, and the international competitiveness of industry.

5

02:63

JAPAN SOCIALIST PARTY (JSP)

1. Basic Political Stance

1) We will realize democratic politics for the sake of the nation's happiness. We will raise the status of the Diet as the highest organ of state power and will make it a parliament that is linked directly to the people. For this purpose, we will fully implement the public management of elections and make sure that individuals who widely represent the voice of the people are selected. We will revise the system of majority rule deciding everything and respect government party-opposition party talks. With regard to the major items of national policy, we will establish the practice of [placing these before] the judgement of the people through dissolution [of the Diet]. 2) Along with fundamentally reforming the political and economic arrangements which serve monopoly capital into those which reflect the will of the people, we will actively nurture local government and conduct politics which truly serve the nation.

2. Constitution

1) We oppose Constitutional revision and will fight